

The Honky Monkeys

Press Kit

The Honky Monkeys basically rule. No one else in the world plays like else. I mean, whoever heard of funk, honky-tonk, AND hip-hop? Have we created a whole new genre? Shouldn't we be in the encyclopedia, or at least Websters Dictionary?

Regardless, you may hire us now, and we will play for you. We will stir your venue's unsuspecting patrons into a frenzy with our unique music. Our guitarist's gyrations will make your female patrons melt, and likely even some of your male patrons. He can't help it, he was born to move like that.

If you have any further questions (which we doubt you will, you must be convinced by now to hire us) then contact our agent, please don't bother the musicians with your questions, they are busy leading the lives of rock stars.

Thank you.
